Until further notice, we will give any honorable and reliable citizen of Lamoille County, who hasn't already a good Stove, the And in the pallor that succeeds it; by use Free for 30 days of an excellent Cooking Stove, By the uneven heart-throbs, and the freak with Reservoir, to be re-While new emotions, like strange barges, mal turned at the expiration of that time unless the person receiving it shall, after In the avoidance of that which we seektrial, desire to purchase it, The joy that seems the counterpart of fear, As the alarmed heart leaps in the breast in which case he can do so And knows, and names, and greets its godlike upon liberal terms, subject to the following warrant In the proud spirit suddenly grown meek-The haughty heart grows humble; in the tender And unnamed light that floods the world with and guarantee. splendor; In the resemblance which the fond eyes trace

First---That the price In all fair things to one beloved face; In the shy touch of hands that thrill asked for it is as low as In looks and lips that can no more dissemble the same, or as good a Stove, can be bought for in Vermont, and the buyer may have another 30 days from date of purchase to investigate this matter. and we agree that the buyer shall be his own judge in deciding this

Stove against breaking by fire, with fair usage, for one full year from date of purchase.

Third---We warrant every pound of iron in the Stove to be new and every plate to be honestly and thoroughly made.

Fourth---We warrant the Stove to be an excellent baker and heater, and that the water will boil quickly in the Reservoir by turning damper according to directions.

Fifth---We warrant the ing aerial castles. At last-and Herman resolved the very next day to call Stove to give perfect and and pay his respects, although the old was so glad of anything in my life. He's hardly survive exposure such as other entire satisfation in Price to the delights of contemplating the Quality, Operation, and Every Other Particular, or House," mused Mr. Franklyn, "I cerat the end of 60 days we in this out-of-the-way place awaiting his little girl, so she stood up with dignity will take it back and re- work into his good graces, I should in coming here after all that has transfund the purchase money. | never nave taken to him up. Heigho! Sometimes I think it would be easier to work for money Sixth and Finallythan to inherit it."

We guarantee that there shall be no un: pleasantness or dissatisfaction, if after full Franklyn noticed that he kept one hand tral population of the Haunted Houseand thorough trial you decide not to keep the Stove; we shall not ex- old woman, who evidently considered pect to please everybody, and if you conclude you don't want to "Humph! My health is well enough! buy, we shall keep entirely good natured. We only ask that you by fingering the rings of the iron box. give us a chance to try to please you, if you eyes glistened-"but it will be to those haven't already a stove that does so. We think we can do it.

HYDE PARK, VT.

JOB

PRINTING

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION

Neatly and Promptly Executed "I must break my engagement," said

At the Office of this Paper,

LETTER HEADS, BILL HEADS,

NEWS AND CITZEN.

VOL. X. NO. 39.

HOW DOES LOVE SPEAK!

BY ELLA WHEELER,

How does Love speak?

in the faint flush upon the tell-tale check,

The smile that proves the parent of a sigh:

Thus doth Love speak.

How does Love speak?

Of bounding pulses that stand still and ache,

Along vein channels their disturbing course;

Thus doth Love speak.

How does Love speak?

guest: Thus doth Love speak,

How does Love speak?

Thus doth Love speak.

How does Love speak?

They shrink ashamed to silence; in the fire

Like lightnings that precede the mighty storm

apassioned tide that sweeps thro' throbbi

Setween the shores of keen delights and pains

The Iron Box.

"Come? Come at last? Are you sure

Sure as taxes," said Joe Poppinger taken that old house—the Haunted for,"

In the embrace where madness melts in bliss,

And in the conclusive rapture of a kiss: Thus doth Love speak!

"He's come, Mr. Herman,"

'Any servants with him, Joe?"

"See him, Mr. Herman? I seen ead, and I s'posed likely there couldn't rom the furniture cart like a crazy spi-

"Thank 'ee, sir. Much obliged to you,

And so the next day Mr. Franklyn

"To inquire after your health, Cousing

"But it will make no difference to you,

Better than you wish it, I dare say !"

have done.

"But, my dear cousin"

he spoke, on the lid of the box, opinions. I did not know that"- he to himself. "That's the first thing.

on fate and fortune."

What the second will be depends entirely be two such outlandish old customers undle of old bones tied round the mid dle, with a palm-leaf patterned dressing ain't much, by the way.

rum lot in all my life."

crown for you."

the pillar of the portico.

In the deep, soulful stillness; in the warm mee strikes with glance, swift flashing high

In wild words that uttered seem so weak and higher,

he sudden silence and reserve when near-be quivering lid of an averted eve-

MORRISVILLE AND HYDE PARK, VERMONT, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1882.

with velvety eye-brows, and a round, red dot of a mouth : and in these dark eyes glittered a light, half resentful, half anguished, as she looked straight at Herman Franklyn.

"I understand," said she, "You want your rich uncle has come to the neighborhood I am no longer worthy of you," "It isn't that, Josie, believe me," said Franklyn, twisting himself about, perhaps it would be better for both of Still as the dawn, and with the dawn's swift "And I haven't the least doubt of it," interrupted Josie, with heaving breast and quivering lips. "A thousand times better; for I value the love of no man who can leave me thus. Pray don't waste your time in conjuring up any further excuses. They are quite unnec sary. I wish you a very good morning.

And she went on peciting her potatoes, while Herman Franklyn crept out of the house, feeling very like a whipped cur. | 3 ashamed of himself; but the reward-as at least he esteemed it—came at last. Mr. Miner Molineux fell ill. Being ill, never would have done in health, you, Herman?" he asked tremulously. "Oh, there's no danger at all," reas hat morning said that the patient's nary way. spirits must be kept up at all hazards. "And you won't leave me?" "Certainly not, if my presence can b any satisfaction to you," responded the

"But that girl that you're engage to," grambled Mr. Molineux; "she bush, licked by its mates, rubbed by the noise and surge, its huge paddle-wheels cent on his four acres. But finally they as nearly certain as any future event won't like it." "Do you think that I could persist i delighted fortune seeker.

The engagement is broken," "Good!" croaked the old man. "En-fifth he became speechless. On the "Only one—a crooked old woman, as sixth he died, craft. I never did come across such a his name with the padlocked iron box, ed in the cattle stalls, been well sacrificed.

said Widow Hall. and some rusty coins as no decent shopgoing. He was a running in and out keeper would give change for."

"That will do, Joe, Here is half a dictionary the old man had been writing throughout their entire length. the inn, shambled away, grinning and pulling at the front of his cap, while Her- all his life. Manuscript, the lawyer man Franklyn leaned whistling against called it, whatever that may be. He thought it was worth a deal of money-So old Miner Molineux had arrived at last, the rich and eccentric relative on books as nobody but himself ever heard States and Canada. Neat cattle need the reversion of whose fortune, real or of, and traveling about the country to more protection, and it is really cruel to supposed, he had all his life been build- pick up information."

" I'm glad of it !" cried Josie, springwoman with the hot water did not add served right for once. Mr. Franklyn called the next day,

"If I hadn't heard from his lawyer a model heroine she would have thrown that he had taken a lease of the Stone both her arms around his neck and shelters either of thick evergreens, tainly should have never buried myself ever. But she was only a very human advent; and if I hadn't thought I could and said, "I wonder at your assurance poultry, which we do from motives of never have taken the trouble to hunt pired, Mr. Franklyn,' "But, Josie"

"There is the door, sir," said Josie, Please to walk out." And there was nothing left for it but o " walk out," Old Miner Molineux sleeps quietly it coolly, sitting among his treasures, like the village graveyard and public rumor Marius amid the ruins of Carthage. But has added yet another ghost to the spec on the ring of a padlocked iron box a yellow-visaged old bogey, who wears a wig and carries in his hand a padlocked "Well, young man, and what do you iron box. want?" he asked, impatiently, when the

A Thousand Million Suns.

that Mr. Franklyn was no subject for the imates of the sun's distance, and as, observing more and more carefully the Miner," said the young man, smoothly, acidly went on the old man, still nervous-miser, shrugging his shoulders, "but merest minature of a sun.

blocks used in many cities for pavements coat and pants pockets to resist the have a decided unhealthy influence. The strain caused by the carriage of pieces Josie Hall was sitting in the farm-house blocks being placed with their fibrous of ore and heavy tools. kitchen peeling potatoes-no very ro- ends upward, are saturated with rain, in mantic occupation, and still one which which is dissolved the filth of the streets. Scholar—"It means to hollow out." the indistinct answer. "Well, was to be fulfilled, in spite of all the gui- The pavement thus remains damp for a Teacher-"Construct a sentence in which it," murmured the editor, mechanically. tars and worsted work in creation. She long time, and presents a large and un-NOTE HEADS, &c. | was a black-eyed, damask-cheeked girl, | wholesome evaporating surface,

WINTER CARE OF LIVE STOCK. THE NESTOR OF THE PRESS. Few Incidents in the Life of Thurlow Weed.

There are a few general rules for the care of live stock in winter, which are of universal application :

First.-They should lie dry, whether to break the engagement. Now that bedded or not. A dry floor is far better than wet bedding. Spar or slat floors, through which urine will quickly pass, and which give the animals a level standing place, are especially to be advised. with the red signals of keen mortification A good degree of comfort may be had on blazing on his cheek. "But I think such floors, but a full supply of dry litter-straw, leaves, swamp hay, etc.sertainly makes all kinds of stock more comfortable,

Second.—Shelter saves fodder, wherever lumber can be easily obtained, to a Cegree to which few practical men are aware of. The warmer the stables are the better, except perhaps for sheep. tial that the manure heap should be that there should be perfect ventilation, | paper was going to press. In setting i given with the utmost regularity and unihe was frightened. Being frightened he time. Then the animals have an appe-feed. The skin of an animal existing in out to the island (now the steamboat achusetts side until the Selectmen got trouble had been appreciated by them, shower, brushed and carded by every came up," he writes, "with an awful dodged back and forth, and didn't pay a Seward's nomination was counted upon ground in rolling, and in various ways exposed and its funnels vomiting fire put up a job on him, and two assessors, could be. Mr. Seward himself thought Each day the work done on that field kept free from accumulations of its own and smoke," so that to the unaccustomed one from each State, went out in skiffs, so, and so did Mr. Weed, anything contrary to your wishes?" re- exfoliations, from the stoppage of its eyes of young Thurlow and his comrades the Island being anchored in the middle The Republican National Convention account should be attended to every day; broachfully asked Herman Franklyn, pores by sweat, and from its own in- it seemed more like a monster from the of the lake. The old man said he was met at Chicago in May, 1860. It was if neglected, these important items will herent dirt. A healthy skin means infernal regions than anything else they ready to pay, only he wanted it just called to order by Governor Morgan, of be forgotten. Perhaps the first work warmth, health, life and vigor, other could imagine. They were greatly right, as he lived in both States—the New York; David Wilmot, of Pennsyl- done on this field will be manuring it. Engagements to girls that haven't any- cure this in horses and cattle only by they had it to say in after years that the other. The collectors got so mixed and the Hon. George Ashmun, of Massa- first day's work would stand like this: grooming A straw brush, made by twist- they saw the first steamboat that ever up trying to straighten it that I believe with a confident nod of his head. "He's you've more sense than I gave you credit ing up a thick rope of straw until it went up the Hudson. becomes very hard and inclined to kink, In its biographical notice the New I don't think the old man's taxes are irreconcilable divisions among their op-Second --- We warrant the House, the neighbors all call it—and he's Day by day, Miner Molineux grew then doubling it and twisting it into a York Tribune says: Thurlow Weed's life square yet."

"Did you see the old man yourself; man's neck. And he felt that Josie had shine are health-giving and invigorating important part of his career. He was they were generally laughed at, until midnight, before the nomination, Mr. day-book thus: principles and not one of our living "But you don't mean to say that old the thorough ventilation recommended, and was already a young man when the State line in New Hampshire, nearly Greeley appeared in the Convention as a Molineux hadn't got anything after all?" good air has been provided for, neverthe | battle of Waterloo was fought. He lived | three miles from where it at first stood. id Widow Hall.

Less all well fed animals enjoy and are and worked -ix. targe generations of the Nothing but a few sticks of furniture the better for air breathed out of doors public men. Most of the men who are The widow's eyes shone through her Stables should be constructed with refer- Franklin died seven years before Mr. "Lor" o' massy!" said she. "And for stables, both for horses and cattle, journalists take the world back into the found anchored by roots, rising and fall- by their friends. Besides Mr. Greeley, what was in the iron box as everybody have in this particular a great advantage reign of Louis XIV, and beyond the ing with the water, and swinging by the choice of Seward was opposed by had so much to say about—the iron box over basement stables under the whole birth of Frederick the Great. Another their vegetable cables. Some of the Henry S. Lane and Andrew G. Curtin. "Just the sheets of paper containing a for the admission of sunlight and air Shakespeare.

> Sixth,—Give all animals free access to salt. With plenty of feed, horses and sheep will stand any degree of dry cold and he'd spent his all in hunting up old incident to the climate of the United expose them unprotected to winter weather. Swine need thoroughly warm ing up with sparkling eyes. "I never dry quarters in winter weather, and will domestic animals will bear perfectly well, So with poultry—while turkeys will bear meck and subdued. If Josie had been the severest storms and cold roosting in vowed that she loved him better than or houses, and ducks and geese the protection of the manure pile or the hay stack. In sheltering all animals and economy, it is well to bear in mind their yard. natural instincts, that those which need Agriculturist for December.

Simple Little Patents.

lead pencils affords the owner of the bors. royalty an independent fortune. The inventor of the gummed newspaper pointed screw has evolved more wealth barring the big iron doors with himself than most silver mines, and the man who others' positions, they diminished the first thought of putting copper tips to possible range of the as yet undetected children's shoes is as well off as if his locked out. It is as good as living in a his wife; "and let us begin with your that "Michigan had nothing to take about ten eggs, and one tablespoonful of upparent motions, men's conceptions of father had left him $2,000,000 in United he grandeur of the material universe in- States bonds. Although roller skates are not so much used in countries where thrust back the stars into the depths of | ice is abundant, in South America, espespace, until the glories of the nocturnal cially in Brazil, they are very highly leave behind me"—Herman Franklyn's heavens were changed from so many esteemed, and have yielded over $1,000. thousand points of light to as many suns, boo,000 to their inventor. But he had York City, all about the same height. Shelling the other day, through the medium of faith in times past, and we marshal now trim the beef kidney fat and chop it very eyes glistened—"but it will be to those who consult my wishes more than you many as grand as our own, many far to spend fully $125,000 in England alone Each building has its janitor, and each the public press. grander, some like Sirius, Vega, and fighting infringements. The "dancing janitor has his family. When the outer Canopus, so much vaster than he is, that Jim Crow," a toy, provides an annual "Words are all very well," said the old by comparison with them he seems the income of $75,000 to its inventor, and the common needle threader is worth But even this, stupendous though it S10,000 a year to the man that thought of visit. The roofs form their avenues and truly amiable creature, if one may judge closing his political career by assisting Spread all this in a large napkin, well well my aversion to matrimony—and yet seems, is little compared with the scene it. The "drive well" was an idea of Col. boulevards, their grand promenade. well my aversion to matrimony—and yet your go and engage yourself to get married to a girl who hasn't a penny.

There is something slightly curious whose troops, during the war, were in want of water. He conceived the notion of driving a two-inch tube having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropping in law own debts, now that I have get having your neighbor dropp you go and engage yourself to get presented when we rightly interpret what Green, whose troops, during the war, married to a girl who hasn't a penny.

Eh? Don't you?" in a rising inflection like a bark. "And then, after coolly disregarding all my wishes, you expect me regarding all my wishes a saturation of driving a two-inch tube depths of regarding all my wish to leave you this—thir"——tapping, as telescope of Galileo, in later times tens simple contrivance was patented after the way of living of the old cave-dwellers of thousands, and in the days of the elder the war, and the tens of thousands of in the southwest. "But, Cousin Miner, if you wish me, Herschel hundreds of thousands. With farmers who have adopted it have been I will certainly adapt myself to your the best telescopes in our own time it is obliged to pay him a royalty, a moderate probable that as many as a thousand mil- estimate of which is placed at $3,000.pinions. I and not know that "Stuff and nonsense!" yelled the old lion stars could be seen were every part of the spring window shade yields from under a bridge near Raritan, N. J., Stall and nonsense: yelled the old of the celestial sphere examined. A an income of $100,000 a year; the stylo-amused himself by throwing a shovelful thousand million suns, a thousand million graphic pen also brings in $1,000,000 a of sand against the bridge flooring whenpublic health claim that the wooden or eyelet at each end of the mouth of two days later.

"The baby excavates when it gets hurt," | _Rockland Courier-Gazette.

OLD EZRA'S FLOATING FARM.

Mr. Weed himself says : "Morgan fin shed his book in a house adjoining that n which we resided in Rochester. Mr. Dyer, his friend, after enjoining secrecy, showed us the manuscript and asked us to print it. We did not think that a man Hampshire, and if he wasn't the out-and- H. Seward, by the Republican party, for precisely where the gain or loss came who had taken such oaths to keep secrets outest chap for avoiding the demands of President in 1860. Four years before from, he could not know with any dewas at liberty to reveal them, and declined the printing of the book which created all that excitement," While Mr. Weed was an apprentice in the office of the Lynu in Onondaga Hol- he didn't live in a balloon, but on solid York, Ohio, Michigan, Iowa, and Wis- field, and another with the wheat-field, low, a little incident occurred which he relates as follows: An obituary notice of the death of the and his property were in Massachusetts," | Chanan all the other slave States, The keeping of field accounts necessiance of the death of the and his property were in Massachusetts," | New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illiaccomplished lady of a then youthful all that the manure heap should be chere it will not contaminate the air and the desired to the up the word "consort" occurred. It than a floating island made up of bog The strongest opponent of Mr. Seward will be between himself and field No. 1, Third.—As to feed. This should be was new, and did not strike me as con- and stuff, and for a good many years it was Horace Greeley. The letter of Hor- or 2, or 3, etc. Two small blank books veying the appropriate idea; and instead blew about the pond, until finally the acc Greeley dissolving the firm of Sewformity—never more than will be all of referring to the dictionary I substi- old chap put up a hut on it, kept a cow, ard, Weed & Greeley was the beginning ord. One, the ordinary day-book of the eaten up long before the next feeding tuted the word "comfort," so that the chickens, and ducks, and had a regular on the part of the editor of the Tribune merchant, in which is entered the transdeceased was thus made the "comfort" floating farm. But one day he heard of unrelenting war upon both the other actions for the day. The other, a ledwas solitary. And consequently he sent tite for their food, so that coarse fodder rather than the "consort" of the bethe assessor was coming, so he cast of members of the firm. Weed, however, ger, has each page ruled for debt and pleading before Lord Mansfield on some the assessor was coming, so he cast of members of the firm. Weed, however, ger, has each page ruled for debt and pleading before Lord Mansfield on some for his cousin Franklyn, a thing he may be given, to be followed with better, reaved husband. The paper was thus the moorings that he had rigged to the was safe from assault, as he would have credit. On the left-hand side will be question of manorial right, to say: "My was safe from assault, as he would have credit. On the left-hand side will be question of manorial right, to say: "My and by grain in some form, if this be a worked off and sent about the village; island, and before the next day the wind nothing to do with office for himself, entered all expenses which the cultiva-"You don't think I'm going to die, do part of the daily ration. This is no and while felicitating myself on an had carried him over the State line that Greeley knew, however, that Mr. Seward tion of the field and the harvesting and stant in my own person. I myself have doubt the most economical system, se- intellectual achievement the blunder was ran through the pond into Massachusetts, was on the slate for the Presidential nom- sale of the crop occasions. The right two little manners." "We all know it, was on the slate for the Presidential nomcuring the least waste and best digestion discovered by Mr. Brown, a one-eyed and when the collector went out in a ination in 1860, and if he could defeat hand side is for the receipts from the Sir Fletcher," the judge interposed, with sured the young man, as the doctor had of all kinds of folder used in the ordi- shoemaker, and my ears yet tingle with skiff, the old bog-skipper, as they called him in the Convention his vengeance sale of the crops. At the head of each one of his blandest smiles, the boxing my stupidity cost them.

nimals are a most valuable means of Hudson River he and a few other boys neighbor State. keeping them in health as well as saving placed their clothes on a plank and swam a state of nature is washed by every landing) to see the wonder pass. "It after him there, and for several years he and affairs had been so managed that Mr.

moved into it, bag and baggage, which worse. On the fourth afternoon he sent stiff mass a foot to eighteen inches long almost spans the history of this country "A similar case might happen at an much had been said of Abraham Lincoln." In much had been said of Abraham Lincoln. ed, will do a deal of rubbing before it born before Washington died, and when the group of listeners. "On Lake Me- one term twelve years before, and had vating and harvesting, as performed the landlord, becoming really enamored, goes to pieces, and is for purposes of Webster, Clay, and Calhoun were maknomenauk there is an island that for a won some reputation two years before by through the season. Bear in mind that told her he would give her a receipt in "My fortune is made now," thought friction, rubbing off mud, etc., better ing their reputations he had edited sev- long time was called the mysterious island, endeavoring to beat Stephen A. Douglas every item of expense belonging to the full for just one kiss. "Sir," said she, when I called to ax if I could be of any Herman, who had listened at the door than any other brush. Clean skins are eral country newspapers and fought in It belonged to the town of Winchendon, for United States Senator from Illinois. se. If they only owned a black cat I'd during the interview with the lawyer, just as important for cows as for horses, the battles of his country. He was older Mass., contained about six acres, and was The first names for nomination among have the whole kit of 'em up for witch- and heard directions given connecting and the use of the brush is recommend- than Seward, or Lincoln, or Greeley, and covered with trees thirty feet or more the people were Seward, Chase, McLean, when Clay, Webster, and Calhoun were high. Some of the people declared they and Bates, and all the chances appeared to the field. For instance, corn may be can't do our own kissing. whereof the key hung round the dead Fifth.—Sunshine. Fresh air and sundered upon the most had seen the island move years ago, but favorable to the New York favorite. At used for eating. Make an entry in the alive when Napeleon's star appeared in one morning they found it gone, and now Greeley telegraphed to his paper that dependents should be without them. In the darkness of the French Revolution, it is, or was a short time ago, over the Seward's success was very probable. Mr. even on our coldest days, and a sun-bath new beginning to attract attention might dermined it, until a good, sharp breeze H. Seward of New York; Mr. Judd, of of an hour or two is of the highest value. have been his grandsons. Benjamin took the trees as sails and away it went. Illinois, named Abraham Lincoln: and ence to sunlight, and long narrow wings Weed was born. The lives of these two in streams affected by tide. They are McLean, and Judge Bates were named barn, as the former may have windows such would very nearly reach the time of European lakes have such islands, that The argument was that there was four led by janitors' families? I know a janidown Broadway who has four little tots ran into three hundred miles from the readily go for McLean, and next for Linthe street more than once a week populated with a great variety of snakes, Thus it appeared that three of the doubtof them to my certain knowledge has swept out to sea." never been down in the street at all, That's a fact. It will be down some day. It was only born lately. Where do you think the children's playground is i It is the roof, and a rare, good yard it is, too, with flowers growing on it, and everything just like a good, big paved There is a high ledge around the four it most are best protected.—American sides, so there is no danger of the youngsters falling off. And there are clotheslines there, and tubs standing about, and clothes-pins lying on the ground-everything so natural you might easily im-The simple little patents appear to pay agine yourself in somebody's back yard. the best. Among these trifles is the fa- The children seldom see anything of the vorite toy-the "return ball"-a wooden world down below; and their mother ball with an elastic string attached, sell- hardly ever does, for she has her hands ing for ten cents each, but yielding to full taking care of the youngsters. There its patentee an income equal to $50,000 is a nice secluded life for you, with no a year. The rubber tip on the end of danger of annoyance from prying neigh-

ROOF-TOP LIFE IN NEW YORK.

There is something attractive about it, too. Just think of the janitor, at wrapper is also a rich man. The gimlet dark, shutting up the whole place and inside. There he is, with his family kept," about him, and all the world securely castle with the bridge drawn up and the moat full of water. But even when the outer doors are locked the janitors are not always shut in from the world. There is a block of buildings in one of doors are shut and locked and no outsider can by any possibility make his way in, the janitors' families begin to

Nor so Funny.—Richard Ramsey, engaged a few days ago in hauling sand know is perfectly immaterial to me, Leave me to my books and to my writing. That's all I ask of any man living."

That's all I ask of any man living."

The standard minior substance in the graph of the glories and the wonders which modern science reveals in the graph of the glories and the wonders which modern science reveals in the graph of the glories and the wonders which modern science reveals in the graph of the glories and the wonders which modern science reveals in the graph of the glories and the wonders which modern science reveals in the following the horse jump. A large central orb of our system!—Provessor pose of making the horse jump. A large in double-quick time, rolls it up neatly the same, A very large fortune has stone in the last shovelful he three restorms of the glories and the wonders repetitions of the glories and the wonders repetitions of the glories and the wonders which modern science reveals in the following the horse jump. A large in double-quick time, rolls it up neatly the same, A very large fortune has stone in the last shovelful he three restorms of the glories and the wonders repetitions of the glories and the wonders which modern science reveals in the marking pen for shading in different colors, $100,000; rubber stamps in double-quick time, rolls it up neatly the same, and a same and the wonders of the purple of th been reaped by a Western miner, who, bounded and struck him over the eye, nurse. "But," says the little fellow pounds, ma'am," He is the man who Nor Healthex.—Recent writers upon ten years since, invented a metal rivet inflicting injuries from which he died "men always have such a hard time shav-

"WHAT nils the telephone?" velled the editor of the central office, which he had TEACHER—"Define the word excavate. "The battery wants to be charged," came | American inebriate asylum finds that a "Now define it," said the teacher.

POLITICAL REMINISCENCE The Way a Yankee Avoided Paying Taxes

"Speaking about paying taxes," said man who had perhaps been performing that pleasant duty, "reminds me of an old fellow, a sort of hermit, who lived where I did in a small town in New "Why didn't they sell him out?"

"Because they couldn't get hold of the to 2,214,867 for Fremont and Fillmore. property, and every time the tax collector | consin : Fillmore had Maryland, and Buame around in New Hampshire Ezra chanan all the other slave States, with from each field is "Oh, I see. He had the State line on nois and California. Mr. Weed believed tates the plotting of the farm, with a and promising but now venerable and wheels, and shoved it about to suit."

he wanted. It was nothing more or less of this master-piece of work. him, actually threatened to have him ar- would be satisfied. Greeley had kept his ledger page put the number of the field, Beggas are artless creatures as well Fourth.—Grooming and care of the When the first steamboat came up the rested for trying to collect the taxes of a letter from the public, so that only a few the record of which is kept on that page. as unfortunate. When one of them they had to take it into court. Anyway

"Many lakes have similar islands, even | Salmon P. Chase, Simon Cameron, Judge are used for pasturage, and they often doubtful States, all of which were necescarry the island population to great dis- sary, and none of which could Mr. Seward

"During the great flood in the Missis- vania, Indiana, and Illinois. Illinois, it sippi in 1874, vast floating islands were was argued, was sure only with Lincoln; formed in the river and carried far out Indiana was in the same condition; Penntor who has charge of a big building into the Guif Stream. One that a vessel sylvania was for Cameron first, would of children, and they don't get down into delta was over an acre in extent, and coln; New Jersey adhered to Dayton, or so. Two of them were born frogs and turtles, besides a number of ful States were agreed upon Lincoln as a in the seventh story of an immense land animals that had sought protection compromise candidate, iron building, just under the roof. One there from the rising waters, only to be On the first ballot, Seward had 1731

Some Controversies.

In matters of controversy, the woman with ladies, because in spinning yarns among silks and satius a man is sure to be worsted and twisted, and when a man is worsted and twisted he may consider himself wound up. a dozen others culled from domestic con- defeated the man on whose elevation the mixed together, and pressed down to a Dead limb on de tree show itse's when de troversy, in which the woman has come great mass of the people had set their level in the pan; put the lid on the pan, off triumphant, "Really, my dear," hearts and settled a long-standing spite place a cloth over it and tie it down close, said a friend of ours to his better half, against both Weed and Seward because so as to exclude the air as much as posbut you've turned out only a bit of mat- claims for office. Mr. Seward was de- fortnight after it is made.

"Then, my love," was the reply, "con- many years serviceable to his country in pound of beef kidney grease, one pound sole yourself with the idea that paste is office, and ever true to his principles. of dry Corinthian raisins (Smyrna and to you as long as you live," "See here," coln had a majority of the convention, said a fault-finding husband, "we must Austin Blair, afterward Governor of some years longer. ing the head of his cat with his father's in double-quick time, rolls it up neatly tered; boil four hours.

He advertised in one of the local jour- shall go out to battle for Lincoln."

charge very large proportion of the inmates re- "Well," replied the boy, "I don't exthemselves madical men, mother has got enough of it!".

TERMS $1.50.

KEEPING FARM ACCOUNTS.

Eben E. Rexford in the American Agriculturist for December, says:

THE NOMINATION AT CHICAGO OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN. In order to know what crops are paying best, it is necessary that a farmer should keep an account with each field an old shoe. The late Thurlow Weed put forth the on his farm. If he were to have a genstrongest efforts of his life to secure the eral account, he could tell at the year's nomination of his lifelong friend, Wm. end whether he had made or lost, but Buchanan was elected by a majority of gree of certainty. He might lose money the popular vote, having only 1,834,337, in corn, while the profit realized in wheat would be sufficient to over-balance this property. No, it wasn't air castles, and Fremont carried all New England, New loss. If he keeps a record with the corn-the nomination of Seward would ensure number for each field. This should be "Not exactly, but he had his property his election, and he desired to wind up done in advance of the work of spring friends of Mr. Seward knew of the oppo- For example, begin with field No. 1. sought alms of us, saying he was a poer "He anchored the island on the Mass- sition to be expected. Of course the This, it may be supposed, is planted to scholar, we asked him a question in entry will be: April 20th......Field No. 1, Da. To one day's work, man and team...$2.50.

chusetts, was chosen President. The party was in excellent condition, and the carry. These were New Jersey, Pennsylfield must be charged to it. If anything is sold from the field, or

August 3d Field No. 1,

The above will give an idea of what the ay-book entries should be. It is a sort of diary of every day's work, and all exwhat field the work went to and what a very simple thing.

DOMESTIC RECIPES. MINCE MEAT, Thoroughly cleanse up two pounds of candied citron, one pound candied lemon, and one pound range peel, into shreds or very small ce; remove the skin and then chop up our pounds of fresh beef suet, and place this with the currants and candied peel in an earthern pan; next chop the raisins with four pounds of peeled apples, and add them to the other ingredients; trim votes, and Lincoln 102. On the second away all the sinewy parts from eight ballot, Seward, 184; Lincoln, 181. On pounds of roasted sirloin of beef, and wrong way round de corn-stalk. the third trial Seward had 180, and chop all the lean of the meat quite fine; Lincoln 2311-lacking one and a half this will produce about four pounds, votes of a majority. Immediately on the announcement of the result, Mr. D. K. the foregoing must now be added four can horse. Cartter, of Ohio, (who had been an appounds of moist sugar, four ounces of Corn-cob stopper don't but de lasses in de prentice in Mr. Weed's office at Rochesground spice-consisting of nutmegs, ter) rose and announced a change in that cloves, and cinnamon in equal propordelegation of four votes to be counted tions, with the grated rinds of twelve for Lincoln. That secured the nominaoranges, and of the same number of The above retort might be matched by tion. Greeley had his revenge—he had lemons; the whole must be thoroughly fallin'. you have sadly disappointed me. I they had failed to see the philosopher's sible; the mince meat should be kept in nce considered you a jewel of a woman; wonderful fitness and overshadowing a cool place, and will be fit for use in a nied the Presidency, but he was for Plum Pudding, Proportions: One very adhesive, and in this case will stick | As soon as it appeared that Mr. Lin-Malaga mixed), one pound and three | Good signs o' rain don't always he'p de have things arranged in this house so Michigan, who had worked ably for Mr. sugar, nine ounces of orange peel and that we shall know where everything is Seward, holding Michigan's entire vote citron mixed, a little salt, half of a grated for him from first to last, rose and stated nutmeg, one pinch of pulverized ginger "With all my heart," sweetly answered that he had been put forward to say and a little lemon peel, chopped fine, late hours, my love. I should dearly back; she laid down her first and best sweet cream. This is sufficient for two love to know where they are kept." He beloved choice, and took up the candi- good-sized puddings. After having lets things run on as usual. It is not date of the convention with some beating washed the raisins in lukewarm water often, however, that one comes across of the heart, with some quivering of the place them in a basin or wooden bowl, such a crushing retort as that which a veins. We have followed him (Seward) with the peel already cut into square the principal business centers of New Sheffield husband received from his wife with an eye single and an unwavering pieces, and steep in a little brandy. Now behind him in the grand column which fine, with one spoonful of flour, mix it well with the crumbs of bread, brown mals that he, Thomas A., would no lon- Mr. Weed was greatly disappointed at sugar and eggs; then add raisins, the peel, ger be answerable for the debts incurred the result. It deprived him of a long-salt, nutmeg, ginger, and, last of all, by his wife, who seems to have been a hoped-for pleasure, that of practically and after it is well mixed, the cream, from the advertisement which she pub- to place in the highest national office the buttered, fold up the corners of the nap-LIVES OF HORSES.—If not worked young and not abused, well-bred horses ant and agreeable. You ask for two will live long. A horse belonging to J. L. Garrison, of Greene County, Pennsylvania, died last soving at 39 from an analysis of two pounds, and you leave him thorsylvania, died last spring at 39, from an accident, or it probably would have lived secretary of worth leave the next stall the sauce separate.

I two pounds, and you leave him thoroughly vexed. At the next stall the sauce separate.

I two pounds, and you leave him thoroughly vexed. At the next stall the sauce separate.

I two pounds, and you leave him thoroughly springly the sauce separate. man of meat hears your request with un-FOUR-YEAR-OLD Augustus is found shave the mold well buttered, and the half, slaps it into the scale and out again pudding tied in a napkin, also well but-catch it."

WIT AND WISDOM.

JOSH BILLINGS says: "Next to a clear conscience for solid comfort comes

A JEWELER advertises that he has some precious stones for disposal, adding that "they sparkle like the tears of a young Fashion now decrees that a bridal tour need not last over three days, and some one says "most any sort of a couple can remain within doors that

Ir is not good to take tea in the middle of the day. The man who tried it in a Park Place Grocery store, when he thought the clerk was not looking, is

"I with register for another piece of ie, ma," said an urchin. "My son, you have east one thoughtless ballot of ple down your throat already. There shall be no stuffing the digestive ballot-box in this family," and the little fellow hung around the supper-polls without avail.

SIR FLETCHER NORTON, whose want of courtesy was notorious, happened, while corn. If work was begun on this field Latin. "I don't understand you," he by plowing, April 20th, the day-book responded. "But I thought you were a poor scholar?" "So I am. I'm an awfully poor scholar, for I don't know anything," was the reply, as he slouched

A very exacting landlord makes his gagements are a humbug in any event, things being about right, and we can sefrightened, but it passed harmlessly, and house was in one State and the barn in varia, was made temporary Chairman, If so, the entry in the day-book of the called for his rent of a very worthy mecalled for his rent of a very worthy mepossession of a very pretty little wife. ponents promised an easy victory, Not After that would come plowing, harrow- lock called, and he was enchanted with -perhaps we cannot pay our rent; but used by the farmer, it must be credited I tell you, sir, we're not so poor that we

The following true story just reaches is: A Jamaica Plain Republican told his wife a few days before election that if Massachusetts went Democratie he should leave the State, and added that he meant liary in such a way that you know just from the kitchen, and going to the door he called his wife to inquire the cause, has been received from that field. Every noting at the same time that preparations thing going to the field makes it a debtor. to move were apparently going on down Every thing coming from the field makes stairs. She informed him quietly that the farmer the debtor. Thought of in the State had gone Democratic, and he this way, the keeping of the day-book is called savagely for a paper that he might know the worst. It was brought to him, and he was closeted with it for some time, then coming to the door he shouted to his wife, "Get the breakfast, our pounds of currants and remove the Mary; no matter about moving, there tones from four pounds of raisins; cut | isn't any place to go to."-Boston Post. APHORISMS FROM THE QUARTERS, Nigger sleep warm of his head kivered up. Norf wind show you de cracks in de house. Ween you make de jail too nice, you better strenkin' de hog pen. Mule don't kick 'cordin' to no rule. Black sheep hide mighty easy in de dark. Sun trabble slow 'cross de new-groun's.

Better keep de rockin'-cheer in de cabin lo f You can't coax de mornin'-glory to clam de Sot'day night he'p do roomatiz pow'ful.

High-l'arnt nigger ain't much service at de which must also be placed in the pan; to Blind bridle can't hide de fodder-stack fum de buds come out. De new groun's is de bes' yard-stick to medjer a strange nigger by. 'way your bref.

Tin plate don't mind drappin' on de flo'. Cossin' de weather is mighty po' farmin. De preacher need heap mo' grace when he won't pray for rain tell de wind git right. It takes heap o' licks to dribe a nail in de

Books don't tell when de bec-martin an' de hicken-hawk fell out.

Don't take too big a chip on a saplin.' De public road aint free fur de rattlesnake De plow-p'int is close kin to de meal-bag. Dar's some fac's in de wul' dat don't slide long on de telegraph-wire

Oil on Troubled Waters.

-J. A. Macon, in the Century.

Once more the experiment of pouring taming Neptune exhibited on occasions when he is unusually turbulent,

DETECTED, -John Grismer had always Disgraced.—Lieut, Ponsonby, late of been poor, and when he put $20 into the the royal navy, whose misconduct last plate at church at Corneliville, Me., ing I want to practice before my beard There is a six-year old boy in Auburn and so incensed the mob as to imperil his but he said that he really desired to who is wonderful on spelling and defini-who is wonderful on spelling and defini-safety after the inquest, has been di-make the contribution. The note was A Surprise.—A gentleman writing to tion. The other day his teacher asked him to spell matrimony. "M-a-t-r-i-nections whom he had deserted—under having been recorded, as part of $2.000 been vainly calling for ten minutes. the St. James's Gazette from a certain m-o-n-y," said the youngster promptly. circumstances deeply disgraceful to him. having been recorded, as part of $2,000 recently stolen, and then Grismer con-THE motto of Wall street is, "Little fessed. What he had intended as a re-year toward a barmaid led to her suicide, there was thought to be some mistake, ceived for treatment for chloral eating are actly know what it means, but I know my dogs start the hare, but the big dogs lief for his conscience led to his detec-